TO :

DEAR SIR /MADAM ,

RE:TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT FOR LEGAL SERVICES

We refer to the correspondence and interactions with a member of our firm to whom you gave instructions for legal services in connotation with you seeking redress for the breach of contract.

We thank you for considering our services and in this letter we set out scope of your instructions and obligations attached on both sides.

1. Your Instructions

You instruct us to obtain legal remedies for you .we pledge to handle your file in an appropriate manner and will proceed with legal activities to meet your interests.

2. Standard of services

The work assigned by the client shall be carried out with due diligence within the stipulated time.

3. Scope of instructions

In a bid to ensure that you obtain the redress you seek ,we shall perform our duties as advocates and follow all the necessary process required by law.

4. Confidentiality

We observe the requirement not to disclose any information about the client unless consent has been given by the client .

5. Conflict of interest

We shall not act for any new client whose interests conflicted with those of the existing client.

6. Professional fees

We shall charge according to the advocates fees & remuneration rules .where the instructions require additional fees , the same shall be communicated.

7. Disbursements

Any disbursement incurred in the execution of the instructions will be communicated and charged separately .these must be paid in time to allow effective performance.

8. Communication

Inorder to keep the client updated all necessary steps taken and documents filed ,issued shall be communicated.

9. Termination of legal services

We sincerely hope that neither of us will find it necessary to end our relationship early .however ,if either of us decided to end the relationship ,we expect you to pay all the outstanding bills before we release your file and communication to us. If this letter reflects your understanding of our relationship, please sign and return the enclosed copy. thank you for the opportunity to be service. we look forward to working with you.

Yours sincerely
